

THE SIGNS THAT CAUSE BELIEF

Before reading this piece, it would be best if you have read several of the other writings on this site. We will be addressing items here that will be based on matters laid down in other writings. For the first-time reader, start with The Issue or Two Trees In The Garden or possibly The Promise, then return to this writing.

One of the difficulties of this writing is that it must address the absolute corruption of Christianity, or the church. Thus, we of necessity will be more critical of Christianity in this writing than in any other writing before; not by choice, but by necessity. But let it be said here that the purpose of this writing is not to bash Christianity, as the antagonist or even the frustrated believing frequently do, but to see Christianity as it truly is in Yahweh's plan and design. This is most important for you to remember.

The findings addressed in this writing do indeed lead to inescapable frank conclusions. For some, these findings and conclusions will be very hard if not impossible to accept. On the other hand, for those who desire to reflect in honesty and truth on the big picture of matters, to see the overall plan and works of Yahweh for the salvation of mankind, this examination will bring immense truth into focus.

We will not, however, simply be venturing into the "negative," but look at the most positive and hope-filled side of Yahweh's redemptive plan. Though we must consider:

The complete corruption of Christianity,

We will also consider:

The absolute necessity and great value of the Remnant!

And while this is the two-fold purpose of this writing, it is not intended to be a contrast of corruption versus necessity and value; but rather, it is a drawing of conclusions, observations, and reflections from Yahweh's larger plan to cause men to believe. There is absolutely no question that Christianity is a necessary work of the Holy Spirit, a part of the redemptive plan of Yahweh. But, as one will see in this study, Christianity alone, for numerous reasons, is entirely insufficient in accomplishing the true and complete witness of Yahweh to mankind, as well as in fulfilling the redemptive plan for man. You will see why this can be said by the time you finish reading this most revealing writing.

MOSES, AND THE SIGNS THAT CAUSE BELIEF

For you who are willing to look at the big picture (and those who are not will simply have to try), we find a most remarkable foreshadowing pattern in Exodus, revealing Yahweh's plan to bring His people out of "Egypt," or the world (as Egypt represents).

The book of Exodus opens with the birth of Moses and his flight from Pharaoh in Egypt to the land of Midian. There he encountered the burning bush and the word of Yahweh to return to Egypt and deliver His people. At that time Moses had essentially two questions concerning this formidable task - (1) Who shall I say sent me?, and (2) "What if they will not believe me, or listen to what I say?" It is the latter of these two questions that we will give our attention to in this writing. Let us see what Yahweh's answer was to this most important and, as we will see, highly revealing question. For your convenience, following is Yahweh's answer recorded in Exodus 4:1-9.

Then Moses answered and said, "What if they will not believe me, or listen to what I say? For they may say, 'Yahweh has not appeared to you.'" And Yahweh said to him, "What is that in your hand?" And he said, "A staff." Then He said, "Throw it on the ground." So he threw it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from it. But Yahweh said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand and grasp it by its tail" - so he stretched out his hand and caught it, and it became a staff in his hand - "that they may believe that Yahweh, the God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you."

And Yahweh furthermore said to him, "Now put your hand into your bosom." So he put his hand into his bosom, and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous like snow. The He said, "Put your hand into your bosom again." So he put his hand into his bosom again; and when he took it out of his bosom, behold, it was restored like the rest of his flesh. "And it shall come about that if they will not believe you or heed the witness of the first sign, they will believe the witness of the last sign."

"But it shall be that if they will not believe even these two signs or heed what you say, then you shall take some water from the Nile and pour it on the dry ground; and the water which you take from the Nile will become blood on the dry ground."

Do you see the three witnesses or three signs here? Let us restate them. We will list them in the order in which they were to occur.

(1.) The staff was turned into a serpent, then returned to being a staff.

(2.) The hand placed in the bosom became leprous, and when returned to the bosom was restored.

These were the two specific signs Yahweh was to perform that were to persuade them to believe. If the first sign failed to persuade them, then there was the assurance that the second sign would cause them to believe. But, if neither of these signs were successful in persuading them, then the third sign was to be performed.

(3.) The water of the Nile poured out onto the ground would become blood.

These were to be the two-plus-one signs that Moses was to perform to cause the Israelites to believe. Now that we have laid these out, let us see what this most important testimony means for mankind.

What we find is that these three signs are the pattern for Yahweh's testimony of rich mercy that He will perform for mankind, particularly the first two, to cause men to believe and to deliver them from the bondage of this earth.

Just as there were to be three attesting signs in Egypt that would cause men to believe in Yahweh, and thus deliver them out of Egypt, so there are, or will be, three attesting signs that Yahweh will perform for mankind in order to deliver mankind from the ways and bondages of this earth (our Egypt). As written by Solomon - "That which has been is that which will be, and that which has been done is that which will be done. So, there is nothing new under the sun" (Ecclesiastes 1:9). Before Yahweh accomplishes the works that He is performing and will perform for His kingdom's sake, He foreshadowed these as precluding patterns laid out in the Old Testament. Those things which occurred in the Old Testament are patterns of that which will take place in the establishment of Yahweh's kingdom here upon this earth. "That which has been is that which will be." And this is exactly what we find here is these two-plus-one signs that were to be performed by Yahweh to cause the Israelites in bondage in Egypt to believe.

Of course on the higher kingdom level, Yahweh will not be taking a solitaire man and once again perform these identical literal works. No, when Yahweh fulfills these patterns on the higher level of His kingdom here on earth, He will perform them on a much much larger and higher scale - not a man, but men, many men (and women, of course), not a literal staff, and not a literal serpent, not a man's literal hand and bosom, but many individuals who will be the fulfillment of these things at His kingdom level.

When Yahweh turned the rod into a serpent, He was laying out a picture of what would take place in the future in His kingdom. Keep in mind that the will of Yahweh is to bring His kingdom to this earth - "Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven." So when Yahweh had Moses to place his hand in his bosom and it came out leprous, and to once again return his hand to his bosom and it was restored, He was foretelling another great sign He would perform in His kingdom on this earth that will equally cause men to believe.

These two signs - the rod turning to a serpent and back to a rod, and the hand entering into the bosom of Moses twice to first be leprous and then healed - are the two specific works that Yahweh will accomplish or perform in mankind in order to bear witness of Himself to the world in order that they might believe in Him. However, if these two signs fail, then there is a third and final sign - some water from the Nile is to be poured out on the dry sand and it will become blood.

What specifically are these two-and-one signs that Yahweh will perform on the vastly higher kingdom level that will bear convincing testimony to the world? We will answer this; but, the answer reveals truth which you have not been told in the church. The answer is extraordinarily clear and substantially confirmed, but is likewise uncomfortably revealing.

We will begin addressing this by examining the first sign given to mankind. And frankly, knowing what you know, you really should be able to provide on your own the answer to this first sign. Let us see.

THE STAFF AND THE SERPENT

Why would I suspect that you should know the answer or the fulfillment of the first sign? The answer is quite simple really, and with one question you will be able to answer the question. Being that the sole great work of Yahweh is to bring His kingdom to this earth, what then is or has been that first work in the kingdom of God to cause men to believe? The answer is of course the church, that we have known for almost 2,000 years. The church, and more specifically Christianity, is Yahweh's first sign among mankind to bring men to believe that He is God, and that He will deliver man from Egypt, or this earth. The answer or fulfillment of the first sign then is quite simple - Christianity is the first sign.

"But," some will undoubtedly object, "how can anyone compare Christianity to being a rod that turns into a serpent?" The answer to this question will be a most revealing finding. The fact is, there are more evidences from the Scriptures testifying to this than can even be covered here. We will now seek to examine a few of them.

Yahweh Himself identified that He would be the serpent on the pole. He declared, "And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so the Son of Man must be lifted up" (John 14:14). Now, if Yahshua spoke of Himself in this way, how much more so does the body of Christ fulfill this Divine purpose? If Christianity is in fact the body of Christ, then indeed it is also the serpent on the pole; for that is exactly where Yahshua's body was delivered - into the hands of Satan to be placed on a pole. This is what has transpired with the body of Christ as well. It too has been delivered over to Satan, and Christians have died for 2,000 years!

But this is just one evidence to this certain fact that the first sign that is given to the world in order for them to believe is Christianity, the staff that turns into a serpent. Let us see more.

Have you read the exceptionally revealing writing titled The Sandals And The Staff? In it we see that there is clear prophetic testimony when comparing the three gospel accounts concerning Yahshua's instruction to His twelve disciples, that the staff is very specifically identified with Christianity. The two-part Matthew/Luke Remnant were told NOT to take that staff. On the other hand, Mark Christianity was told TO take that staff; and so they have it to this day. They have had that right to rule and shepherd in the kingdom of God for almost 2,000 years; but, the awful problem with that staff is, as Moses learned and from which he quickly fled, it has the inherent ability to turn into a serpent! This is the serpent Satan that has entered into the church and caused all kinds of innumerable problems, along with incredible deceptive corruption and error. Yes, there is no question whatsoever that Christianity's right to rule staff has often, very often, transformed into the serpent Satan. Christianity, as we see here once again, is the first sign to the world that is given in order for man to believe. It is Christianity that has the staff; the staff that turns into a snake!

Also in a testimony we have seen in other writings such as Two Trees In the Garden, we know that one of the clearest pictures of Christianity is in its place as the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. And of course, that which made the original tree so unique and unforgettable was the serpent that indwelt it. This is the serpent that deceived Eve and caused her to eat from its forbidden fruit.

If we might digress on something here, for some time it bothered me that Eve, the bride, ate from the tree prior to Adam doing so. Prophetically, this confused me. How could the prophetic bride, which Eve represented, eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil prior to the masculine body (the body of Christ)? Then it finally came to me - this is precisely what happened in the kingdom of God.

The first Remnant is a part of the bride of Yahshua, and will be completed by the second Remnant. The two will be made into one, and they will compose the bride of Yahshua. But did the bride eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil before the masculine body of Christ (Christianity), even as this was the order that took place in the original garden? Precisely so. In order that Scripture might be fulfilled, the first Remnant bride ate from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, then gave the forbidden fruit to Christianity for them to eat as well. Thus, as foreshadowed in the original garden, the bride ate from the tree's fruit prior to the body partaking of it. The bride of Yahshua preceded the body, eating from the forbidden fruit and leading the body into corruption. Such is the amazing fulfillment of the pattern we see laid out at the beginning of man.

We bring this evidence up to confirm what we have been examining in the testimony of this first sign - that Christianity is the first sign that Yahweh performed among mankind in order to cause man to believe, and to deliver him from this earth. And as we have been discovering in this writing, and what is clearly and repeatedly laid out in the Scriptures, the serpent is the major identifying factor or element associated with this first sign. So here in the garden of Eden we see the same testimony. Christianity is the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, and residing in that tree is the serpent of old, Satan. This is the major identifying sign of Christianity - the serpent in the kingdom of God.

Thus far we have seen three evidences that Christianity is indeed the first sign. As the body of Christ, it is the serpent on the pole. As revealed in the first three gospels, Christianity is identified specifically with having the staff, the staff that turns into a serpent. And third, Christianity is the tree of the knowledge of good and evil that is inhabited by the deceiving serpent.

But of course, this is not all of the clear evidences. Now we will consider what will be a very lengthy testimony to this matter of Christianity being the staff-turned-serpent. The addition of this testimony will introduce a degree of information to these writings which has not been delivered before, either here or truly in anyone's minds. This is information which has been kept concealed from the foundation of the world, and has only now been revealed in these last days just before the return of Yahshua and casting Satan out of this earth into captivity. Is this claim to new information being exaggerated? Not in the least, as you will see as you continue reading these highly affirmed and marvelous truths.

At the beginning of this writing, it was pointed out that the difficulty of presenting this information is that we must address the absolute corruption of Christianity, or the church we have known for 2,000 years. While Christianity is most certainly the kingdom of God among men on this earth, its downfall is that that kingdom was given to earthly man with the presence of Satan. That mix of the holy things of God with earthly flesh and Satan, has meant the corruption of the kingdom; and that corrupt kingdom is neither accepted by Yahweh as sufficient for His representation on this earth (can anyone say that 22,000 different sects and denominations with all there discrepancies and corruption over the last 2,000 years could truly represent a holy and all-knowing God?), nor does it fulfill His purpose of bringing believing man into His promised land. This absolute corruption and complete shortfall of Christianity is witnessed in many ways, but few as graphic as what we will next examine.

In fact, this fourth evidence we are going to examine is so comprehensive that we will separate it into not only its own section, but into two rather lengthy sections! In this next testimony we will see Yahweh's own view of Christianity, and not man's view. Remember that Yahweh is holy, and anything that is supposed to represent Him and is corrupted, as Christianity is, is MOST offensive to Him. We will now look at Christianity in a whole new light.

THE SERPENT KINGDOM, PART I

The purpose of this section is clearly not to glorify Satan, but to expose his influence and the dominion he has had over the church for 2,000 years. Before doing so, we must begin by making a few introductory comments.

The evidence we are going to examine considers Yahweh's testimonies revealed in the Scriptures, but also in history and geography. The use of these three testimonies is nothing new, for we find in the Scriptures that history and geography often give testimony to the works and plans of Yahweh. Geographic areas inhabited by a people take on prophetic meaning that, though being played out in natural circumstances, portend and reveal future significant spiritual events. For example, the nation of the Israelites came out of Egypt, were led into the wilderness in what is now Saudi Arabia, and following forty years there entered into the land of Canaan. In the New Testament, we read that these things happened as "types" of the church. Stephen called the Israelites as they wandered in the wilderness - "the church in the wilderness." These occurrences that took place as real historical events, in very real settings and geographical places, in truth took place as prelude testimonies of spiritual developments or spiritual happenings that were to come - the church. (The application of this representation just mentioned is covered extensively in the writing titled Passover.)

The Israelite's deliverance from Egypt, not going into the land of the Philistines, the rocks struck at the beginning and at the end of their journeyings, the Amalekites, the Canaanites, the entire scenario of nations, lands, events, places, people, and things, were entirely carried out as foreshadowing, revealing, prophetic, intercessional testimonies. As written by Paul, we know that the natural precedes the spiritual (1 Corinthians 15:46); and this is certainly the case with events that took place, not only here with the Israelites as they went out of Egypt and into the promised land in Canaan, but throughout the Bible. Nations, peoples, places, events, rivers, items, all took on highly prophetic meaning as Yahweh patterned, foreshadowed, or provided intercessional testimonies that looked to higher spiritual fulfillments.

The application and learning from these types and shadows is nothing new. Corroborated by the Scriptures themselves (as we have seen), relied upon every Sunday in pulpits across the world, drawn from in every seminary, all of these natural settings and events provide dramatic and revealing testimonies of the works and plans of Yahweh.

Now let us pose a question. Throughout the period of the Bible, we see the application of places, things, etc. in their prophetic roles. Is there any reason why Yahweh would cease providing these living testimonies today? In other words, what about nations, peoples, geography, events, things, all today? Is Yahweh still providing testimony and intercession through all of these created places, things, and events? Why would He not? We read that all creation groans and travails for the revelation of the sons of God (Romans 8:19-22). Doesn't that intercessional groaning and travailing even more so include today? Yearnings, actions, wars, conflicts, distresses throughout the history of the world, both past as well as present, are in fact travailings for the revelation of the sons of God.

Every people in every generation have gone through these travailings, and they are most frequently carried out in prophetic patterns that men do not even recognize. Men are truly blind to all that Yahweh does. They truly cannot see the forest for the trees, and thus fail to even recognize what Yahweh is doing.

Caught up in worldly existence, religiosity, lemming endeavors, with vision that seldom leads to recognition beyond our noses, men are indeed blind to the awesome works of His hands. Oh, we catch a few crumbs from the table every now and then; but even so, what most people hold to be great truths, are nothing more than lies, or partial truths mixed with erroneous application, or shortfall ideas, or only partial understanding. Even the greatest expounded and lofty orations of many, are often nothing more than glorified dung - taking the truth of God and His creation, digesting that truth by the means of the flesh, and feeding that flesh-altered "truth" to people as though it was that which was originally intended to nourish and feed others. Since Yahweh has no people on this earth who can accurately handle the truth (neither secular, and particularly not religious), then men are sickly and faint from lack of true nourishment.

Well, this writer has wandered from what he was intending to present, but all the more just as well. What was being developed here was that there were and are today events, places, things, all that exist and transpire in the four dimensions of space and time, that testify to what Yahweh is doing and what He will do throughout all of eternity. And why would this be surprising to anyone who believes in an all powerful, all knowing, all encompassing God? What can happen apart from a God who works ALL things according to His will? Everything that happens is an expression of His plan; and as such carries His identity, His pattern, His fingerprints. Since there is nothing new under the sun, then everything is only a repeat of a basic truth and pattern that He has already played out thousands and millions of times before.

Oh, but you say, "Computer technology is new. There are many new developments with us today." But though being new from the standpoint of availability to man, are they really new in regard to the patterns of Yahweh? Not really. Computer technology is nothing more than mankind's continuing cravings for the liberty, knowledge, and communication man will experience once he is delivered out of these earthly bodies and enters into a heavenly realm, a higher realm that will make computer technology and communication seem like two cans and a string. Computer technology is nothing more than all creation groaning and travailing for the revelation of the sons of God - the glorified, transformed-into-heavenly-bodies, two-part Remnant.

As to this matter of a specific present-day prophetic picture, let us refer back to the writing titled Passover. If you have read that writing, you will recall that America is a prophetic testimony of the heavenly kingdom. You can reference that writing by clicking here. Return back to this writing where you are now reading by clicking "Back" on your browser.

America is the heavenly kingdom by more than name only. Her entire history gives evidence to this prophetic and intercessional place, as well as her geography. Her Presidents are profoundly prophetic. The wars this nation has been involved in, and those with whom they were fought, are all in their entirety intercessional and foreshadowing. It is not by happenstance that this heavenly kingdom nation is composed of fifty states, the number of Pentecost. Nor is it without Divine plan that of these fifty states, a two-part Remnant is located outside of the continental 48 - Alaska and Hawaii, the concluding two Remnant representatives. And as has been pointed out in the Passover writing, the United States is divided two-thirds and one-third by the Great Divide. This is the precise division of the kingdom of God - 2,000 years and 1,000 years (Zechariah 13:7-9).

Yahweh is not a passive God. He is active, He is unfathomably creative, and He is all-in-all. He expresses His nature and plans through all mankind, all creation giving testimony to Himself and His plans. In fact, every nation and peoples throughout the world have a prophetic role, not just America. Everything from the great depths and designs of the bottom of the sea, to the vast stars and planets of the heavens above, all speak of His prophetic plan and design. If we had eyes to see, we would understand them.

Some of these roles, pictures, and patterns are more accessible to apprehend, especially when the Bible lays them out in part for us. There is no Bible passage that says "America," so understanding these patterns requires His revelation regarding Bible evidence, historical and present day testimonies, as well as geography. Equally, as we have said, the testimony we will pursue now as we seek to understand better the role of Christianity as the staff that turns into a serpent, is a combination of all of these revealing testimonies. Let us now look at another continent on the other side of the world, and see some most amazing and revealing truths Yahweh has provided for us. We will now consider the continent of Africa.

We can begin by seeing if "Africa" is mentioned in the Bible. Discovering what the Bible reveals regarding Africa's prophetic purpose will be helpful in knowing what Africa might hold in prophetic representation today.

If you take a concordance and look up "Africa," you will find that that name is not used in the Bible. But, obviously the continent we call Africa did exist. Though not called Africa, certainly Egypt was in that continent, as well as Ethiopia, both mentioned in the Bible. But with more careful examination, we find that there was a land mentioned in the Bible that undoubtedly provided the origin from which Africa received its present name. Let us look at this most important and, as you will see, revealing evidence.

Beginning in 1896, a German by the name of Dr. Carl Peters devoted much of his life and studies to the whereabouts of a Bible land called Ophir. What was Ophir? Eleven times in the Scriptures, this ancient Biblical land of Ophir is mentioned specifically in regard to its gold, including being the sole source of the vast quantities of gold obtained by David and Solomon for the construction of the splendorous first temple of Yahweh. Where specifically was this gold obtained? Where was this land of gold called Ophir? The possibility of this vast supply was in fact limited to only one place.

Following extensive research and a personal trip into the land Dr. Peters concluded to be that place of renown, he published two books - King Solomon's Golden Ophir and The Eldorado of the Ancients (an account of his trip into that land). In both of these works he soundly concludes that the only possibility for the location of Solomon's Ophir is Africa. First, it was the only continent available to Solomon that would have come near to providing the vast quantity of gold that he and King David received. To a great degree, this would remain true even today. Africa far exceeds all other nations worldwide in gold production.

Second, we will now examine another intriguing and provocative evidence - the name "Africa." As pointed out in Dr. Peters' book, the origin of the name "Africa" is derived from its ancient name of Ophir. The Latin word "Afer" described a people in a land they called "Afer." Obviously "Afer" came from the Hebrew "Ophir." Thus, Ophir and Afer were the same place, spelled differently by the two cultures. Historically, the origin of the name of Africa is a mystery; yet in reality, as Dr. Peters points out and as we will see affirmed even further in this writing, Africa is unquestionably the preserved name of the ancient land of Ophir where Solomon obtained the vast quantity of gold needed for the temple in Jerusalem.

Now that we see this association (the evidence of this name does not cease here, but will continue to build as we consider this further), let us look at Yahweh's testimony in the present name of this ancient land of Ophir. We noted in the writing titled Passover, and have already mentioned in this writing, that the word "America" means "heavenly kingdom." "Amer" is of Saxon origin and means "heavenly," "ric" means "kingdom" (the Third Reich, or Third Kingdom), and the "a" makes the word feminine. Thus we have the meaning - "heavenly kingdom," which is obviously true concerning this land and Yahweh's prophetic and intercessional significance for it. And as with America, Yahweh has provided another "ric," or "kingdom," that equally bears prophetic testimony today - Afer-ric-a. And of what is this land of "Afer-ric-a" the kingdom? What is "Afer"?

Examining this name based on its original Hebrew name of Ophir, we have then Ophir-ric-a. Now, all we have to know is the meaning of the name "Ophir," then we know the prophetic significance of this continent. But herein lies a problem - no one really knows what the word "Ophir" means, nor the word "Afer". Some words seem to have unclear meanings, and "Ophir" and "Afer" are two of them. So, has Yahweh left us without testimony, even though He has identified it as a "kingdom" of something? Not at all!

Etymologically (the study of the history of words), the association of the following two words might not be clear, but their association in context is very certain. While the Hebrews used the word Ophir for the land which became known today as Africa, the Greeks had an almost identical word that clearly describes that land. Remarkably similar to the Hebrew word "Ophir" was the Greek word "Ophis." Thus, as we will see remarkably appropriate, Ophir-ric-a would be justly represented by Ophis-ric-a. What then is the meaning of Ophis? Appropriate to all the evidence we will examine and have seen up to this point, Ophis means "snake." Thus, the testimony we see for Africa is that it is the "snake kingdom" - and this is exactly what we find this continent to represent. While America is the prophetic "heavenly kingdom," Africa remarkably fulfills its prophetic testimony as the "snake kingdom"!

We have already witnessed that Christianity is consistently identified with the serpent. Christianity is the bronze serpent on the pole, the tree of the knowledge of good and evil with the deceiving serpent indwelling it, the staff that is changed into a serpent, and as we will begin to see here, Christianity is the snake kingdom, vividly pictured in Africa. There are many many testimonies to this latter truth; and we will begin to consider a few of them in this inquiring writing.

We have already seen that this land of Ophir or Ophir-ric-a, is the location where David and Solomon obtained all of the gold to build the temple of Yahweh in Jerusalem. Equally true, this land of Ophir would have been the location where the Israelites would have indirectly obtained all the gold they took with them when they plundered Egypt and departed for the promised land.

Thus, both the gold that Solomon used to build the temple, as well as the gold that was used to build the tabernacle, came from the land of Ophir, or Ophir-ric-a. Knowing that places and events are highly prophetic, what does this obviously repetitive truth hold for us? Let us see.

Herein lies a pattern, a pattern we have seen many times before:

The gold came out of Ophir-ric-a to build the temple of Yahweh in Jerusalem.

This is the same pattern we have seen wherein:

Eve came out of Adam,

The Jews came out of Babylon,

The treasure came out of the field (Matthew 13:44),

A tithe came out of the tithe (Numbers 18:26), and even Honey came out of the lion's carcass (Judges 14:5-9).

This is the pattern that looks to the ultimate great fulfillment of:

The bride comes out of the body of Christ.

Though we cannot digress on the following, Solomon's construction of the temple of gold in Jerusalem is a type of the Remnant bride. You might know that King David could not build the temple because he was a man of war and bloodshed (1 Chronicles 22:8). Likewise, the true temple of Yahweh will not be built by Christianity because of its equally violent actions. The construction of the natural temple was delayed, and the fulfillment was given to the next generation that was a generation of peace - the Solomon work. This is the Remnant work that will be the temple of gold.

And from where is this Remnant gold obtained? From Ophir-ric-a, the "snake kingdom." Here we have a very clear testimony of the application of Africa to Christianity. Even as the Remnant will come out of Christianity and be caught up to New Jerusalem to be His temple, so the gold that came out of Ophir was taken to Jerusalem to build Yahweh's natural temple. The Remnant will become Yahweh's true tabernacle, His true temple, in which He can reside in truth (something which Christianity has never afforded). Thus we have clear evidence of Africa's representation of Christianity, and Christianity's identification with the snake - Africa provided the gold for the temple in Jerusalem and the gold for the tabernacle, prophetic of the Remnant that comes out of Christianity.

What else do we see in this clear prophetic representation? Would you like to know what the church up to now looks like to Yahweh? Then look at the "snake kingdom" of Africa, which for years was known as the "dark continent," where in addition to a vast and assorted quantity of snakes, there is witchcraft, poverty, nakedness, AIDS, adultery, starvation, famines, wars and conflicts, ignorance, the continents highest peak - Kilimanjaro (Kill-a-man-jaro), and the world's longest river. The Nile, like the sea, is prophetic of death (babies were killed in it, and it was turned to blood by Moses). Likewise, the church equally goes to the "sea" of death, and is Yahweh's longest duration work since the creation of man. Africa has the world's largest desert (the 2,000 year drought of the church); and as racially sensitive as this may be, Africa is the continent of the black man (black is prophetic of darkness, blindness, and death).

This is Christianity/Africa, that despite being the second largest continent in the world and surrounded entirely by the sea of death, lacks any good natural harbor. Its banks are those steep banks where the swine go down into the sea, and over the centuries have isolated and hindered the development of this "dark continent." Even its rivers are unsuitable for inland navigation because of the presence of waterfalls. And while these are most revealing testimonies, it is the next testimony that is the most shocking and profoundly conclusive!

What would be your response if Yahweh engraved for you a picture of Satan on this world, this world that rightfully belongs to Satan (as we will examine later)? Would you finally believe in fear and trembling if you could see his face even engraved on Christianity? This is exactly what Yahweh has done, and He told us He would do so in Zechariah 3. At the beginning of this chapter we see Satan accusing Joshua (Yahshua, the same word) the high priest (verse 1). Yahweh rebuked Satan, took away Yahshua's iniquity, and proclaimed this prophetic promise:

"For behold, the stone that I have set before Yahshua; on one stone are seven eyes. Behold, I will engrave an engraving on it," declares Yahweh of hosts, "and I will remove the iniquity of that land for one day."

What is this "stone" that has "seven eyes" that is a "land"? We have already seen numerous times that "seven" clearly represents the church. Likewise, we read that this was the stone of Yahshua. It was the stone of the church, the body of Yahshua, on which He declared to Peter He would build. As we have seen, it was equally the stone on which the unpredictable serpent made its way. This stone is the stone of the "seven eyes" church of Christianity. This is the stone which will have its iniquity removed for one day, for 1,000 years, when Satan is thrown into the abyss and it is sealed over him, afterwards which he will be released for a short time (Revelations 20:1-3).

What then is the "engraving" Yahweh is going to "engrave" on this stone, and why does He call this stone a land? Keep in mind, this whole matter is in response to Satan's accusations against Yahshua, the high priest. It is on account of Yahshua that this entire issue transpires; and it is Satan's accusations against him that elicit all the matters that transpire in this chapter. Thus, what is the engraving that Yahweh will engrave on this "land" with "seven eyes" which will have its "iniquity" removed "for one day"? Yahweh is a big God, and when He engraves on a stone, He uses a BIG stone - an entire land in fact, an entire continent in fact! Let us now see with our own eyes this engraving Yahweh made.

We have already seen that Africa is the "snake kingdom" - Satan-controlled Christianity from which comes the "gold" for Yahweh's tabernacle and His temple in New Jerusalem. Now let us see Satan's face on that continent prophetic of Christianity - Africa.

AFRICA - the "snake kingdom" of CHRISTIANITY

This is Satan! Notice his very precise skull-like head formed by the continent's boundaries of the sea. His crania is formed by the vast Sahara desert. This is Satan! See his eye formed by Lake Victoria, and his mouth formed by the great Limpopo River. Satan even has a goatee. And note, there is a little horn on Satan's head! We will cover this later, but this little horn is "namely, that horn which had eyes and a mouth uttering greatly, and which was larger in appearance than its associates (Africa equally being the second largest continent in the world)" (Daniel 7:20). You are looking at a very graphic and exceptionally accurate picture of Satan, engraved on the land of Africa, the "snake kingdom" of Christianity!

You have looked at Africa many times before, but you have never seen Satan in it, and not like you are going to see him after having completed this writing. Even as you have looked at Yahweh's engraving of the face of Satan on this earth many times, yet have not recognized him on this "rock" on which he is engraved, you have equally looked at and participated in seven-eyed "Africa" Christianity, but have failed to see Satan's head and dominion over it.

Let us point out a few things here that confirm even more that this image is Satan, and that his influence and dominion is over the church. We will start with a most important and revealing point about this image - the very distinct little horn on Satan's head.

Are you aware that there is a beast in the Bible whose appearance is equally described as having a little horn? In Daniel 7 we read of a very disturbing vision that Daniel had; so disturbing that at its end, Daniel's face became pale. Let us read about that beast. We will begin at verse 6.

Daniel "kept looking in the night visions" and he saw a "dreadful and terrifying and extremely strong" beast. It had "large iron teeth" - the "iron" teeth representative of the strong rulership Satan has over this world. Daniel 7:19 tells us that this beast had "claws of bronze." These are the bronze claws of Christianity (bronze being the element prophetic of Christianity, as we will see evidenced later in this writing) - the same claws that Babylonian King Nebuchadnezzar's nails grew to be in his church-seven periods of humbling (Daniel 4:28-33). This beast "devoured and crushed, and trampled down the remainder with its feet (the rights he has to the kingdoms of this world which he could offer to Yahshua)." "And it was different from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten horns." Here we see Satan himself and his dominion in this world - the ten horns representing the nations and Christianity. Let us read on.

"While I was contemplating the horns, behold, another horn, a little one, came up among them, and three of the first horns were pulled out by the roots before it; and behold, this horn possessed eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth uttering great boasts. ... Then I kept looking because of the sound of the boastful words which the horn was speaking; I kept looking until the beast was slain, and its body was destroyed and given to the burning fire" (Daniel 7:8 & 11).

Then in verses 21 and 22 we read a most revealing statement concerning the little horn:

"I kept looking, and that horn was waging war with the saints and overpowering them until the Ancient of Days came, and judgment was passed in favor of the saints of the Highest One, and the time arrived when the saints took possession of the kingdom."

We will not go into all that is taking place here in this vision, but the fulfillment of the beast on the higher spiritual and kingdom level, is none other than Satan. First, let it be emphatically stated that this IS NOT IN ANY WAY some European man antichrist that a large segment of Christianity falsely portends will arise. The antichrist has been at work in the church from its beginning. If you want to know who the antichrist is, then look once again at the picture of Africa. The antichrist is none other than Satan himself, not some science fiction beast man. Oh, Satan works through men alright, even well intentioned men like pastors and teachers and priests and elders, uttering great boasts.

This is Satan who has waged war against the saints for 2,000 years and has overpowered them. He has conquered the church and brought it under his dominion. The church teaches his lies. They follow his ways by dividing themselves. And in the end, they all go to the grave. This power over the saints will sadly take place until Yahshua returns and binds Satan for 1,000 years.

The angel went on to say concerning the beast with the little horn, whose image we have before us engraved on Africa/Christianity:

"And he (the little horn) will speak out against the Most High and wear down the saints of the Highest One (and he has effectively done this), and he will intend to make alterations in times and in law; and they will be given into his hand for a time, times, and half a time. But the court will sit for judgment, and his dominion will be taken away, annihilated and destroyed forever. Then the sovereignty, the dominion, and the greatness of all the kingdoms under the whole heaven will be given to the people of the saints of the Highest One; His kingdom will be an everlasting kingdom, and all the dominions will serve and obey Him" (vss. 25-27).

Satan will be removed from this earth and the church "for one day" upon Yahshua's return. As written in Revelation 20:1-2 - "And I saw an angel coming down from heaven, having the key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand. And he laid hold of the dragon, the serpent of old, who is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years." The preposition "for" in this verse is usually translated "in." But in light of this passage in Revelation, and since we see here the iniquity of Satan being removed, it is clear that what is being addressed is the removal of Satan from this earth for the prescribed period of 1,000 years, or "for one day."

Until this great judgment is made against Satan, he has so effectively dominated the church that even the church bears his little horn image. The snake kingdom of Christianity bears the image of the one by whom it has been overcome. Satan has had his antichrist dominion over the church for 2,000 years!

Do you want further evidence concerning Satan's dominion over and thus his image on Christianity? Ok, here is another image that delivers strong evidence that the beast with the little horn is the ruler over the church. Scroll further and you will once again see the image of the little horned beast of Christianity.

CHRISTIANITY

The little horn beast

Why do churches have little horns (steeple) on their heads (their roofs)? Because the authority that has overcome the saints is the beast with the little horn. Churches with their little horns bear that common image with Satan because Satan has clearly overcome the church, and he rules in it - in its actions, in its teachings, and in sending all of its members to death. Satan has dominion over the church, and he places his little horn on its heads (its buildings) as clear evidence of this! (By the way, have you looked at the Pope's hat lately?)

At this point it would serve us very well to take a close look at the authority Satan possesses. Let us see what the Scriptures reveal concerning his impact and power upon this earth. It is most substantial and highly conclusive!

Satan's dominion is earthly - Revelation 12:9.

He is "the ruler of this world" - John 12:31, 14:30, and 16:11.

He in fact possesses this world - Matthew 4:8-9.

As the possessor, he is also the "god of this world" who blinds the minds of the unbelieving - 2 Corinthians 4:4.

And as possessor, he is equally the prince over this world - Ephesians 2:2.

The totality of his control is summarized in 1 John 5:19 which concludes, "the whole world lies in the evil one," even Christianity in the world; and he "deceives the whole world" (Revelation 12:9), even Christianity in the world.

And with this great dominion, Satan has freely been able, and has had complete authority (1 Kings 22:19-23 and 2 Thessalonians 2:11), to enter the church and entirely overcome it with false teachings (Matthew 13:24-33) and other means of corruption.

Consider once again the face of Satan in Africa/Christianity! As we have just read, this is the face that is central to all that takes place on this earth, including the affairs of the church, attested to by this continent's sole central location along the equator. All other continents in the world are located, either in whole or in part, north or south of the equator. As the god and ruler of this world, Satan is the central figure surrounding all the affairs of this earth, including the church.

Because of Satan's dominion on the earth, his prevalence over church teachings, his influence over men, and man's continuing destiny to death, we discover the startling fact that, as difficult as it may be to accept, Satan has had dominion over the church to the extent that when Yahweh gives us a visual representation of Christianity, the image is little horned Satan. As difficult as it may seem, Christianity is so dominated by Satan that it actually bears his image, and not that of Yahshua. As fulfilled according to Isaiah 52:14, "So His appearance was marred more than any man, and His form more than the sons of men." While this prophecy was never referred to at the crucifixion of Yahshua, undoubtedly its greatest fulfillment is in the body of Yahshua, or Christianity, that has been so afflicted by Satan that it no longer bears the identity of Yahshua, but of its afflictor - Satan!

Before continuing our examination of Africa, let us consider some additional revealing testimonies regarding Satan and his impact and influence on Christianity. These will help both affirm and expand what we have already begun to understand.

We have already noted the significance of Satan, the serpent of old, in the garden in Genesis; let us now take a quick look at him in Revelation. Of the seven churches in Revelation, all but two were warned concerning faults within them. As has been pointed out before, the two Remnants are a part of Christianity, but come out of it as the gold, the bride, those who will rebuild the temple. In these seven churches in Revelation, the two that Yahshua did not fault - the second and the sixth, Smyrna and Philadelphia - represent the former and latter Remnants that come out of Christianity (Revelation 2:8-11 and 3:7-13). But these two churches have much more in common than just their freedom from Yahweh's criticism; one of these similarities we will now point out.

There are only two places in the entire Bible in which the term "synagogue of Satan" is used - once in first Remnant Smyrna where they are warned of its blasphemy and tribulation, and the other in second Remnant Philadelphia where they are told that these lying ones will be made "to come and bow down before your feet (like a hidden Joseph), and to know that I have loved you." Smyrna, the first Remnant type, received a warning concerning the "synagogue of Satan;"

Philadelphia, the second Remnant type, was promised victory over the "synagogue of Satan." There is much, much more in these two "churches" that reveals and pictures the two Remnants, which we cannot address now; but notice here both the Smyrna warning and the Philadelphia judgment of this "synagogue of Satan."

Who is the "synagogue of Satan"? Without a question, it is the "snake kingdom," the Satan controlled and leavened church of Christianity. A warning is given to the first Remnant concerning the "synagogue of Satan;" and, it is the second Remnant that will gain victory over this Satan controlled work. Like a hidden Joseph, the Remnant's brothers will in time come and bow down before their feet and know that Yahweh has loved His Remnant work, His Remnant bride.

Let us quickly review some other scriptural testimonies concerning Satan and his destructive affects on Christianity. To the Philistines, Yahweh foretold in Isaiah 14:29 - "For from the serpent's root (the church's very beginning) a viper will come out, and its fruit will be a flying serpent ("the prince of the power of the air")." This is the serpent foreseen in both Moses' rod, as well as Aaron's priestly rod, as they were turned into serpents. This is the serpent on the pole, as well as the serpent in the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. And this is the serpent in the "snake kingdom," the kingdom of Christianity.

The dominating role of Satan in Christianity will clearly effect the words of Genesis 49:17 which states - "Dan shall be a serpent in the way, a horned snake in the path, that bite's the horses heels, so that his rider falls backward." Christianity's 2,000 year period has listened to Satan and been bitten by the snake on its heel (its rights to the kingdom, evidenced by Jacob grasping Esau's heel and later receiving the birthrights), and the "rider" will soon fall backward! This is the identical testimony of Eli the priest who equally fell backward and died of a broken neck when he heard that the ark of the covenant had been lost. ICHABOD, "the glory has departed"! In reality, the glory of the church was lost 2,000 years ago with the death of the first Remnant; and now, the final end of the over-weight priestly body of Christ will soon be effected. The church will soon lose the rights to the kingdom, and the rider will be thrown backward!

Do you have great difficulty seeing or accepting the presence and the fatal affects of Satan in Christianity? This is understandable, for Proverbs 30:18-19 clearly states - "There are three things too difficult for me, four which I do not understand: ... the way of a serpent on a rock." Again, the rock is the church; and guess who the serpent is on the rock? This combination of both rock and serpent has been the experience of the church for almost 2,000 years! And as difficult as it is to know the way of a serpent on a rock, so it has been impossible for man to know the wholly conclusive and dominating ill affects of Satan in the church.

Do not be surprised at all of this. John the baptizer, who was the prelude and pattern of the Remnant, called the multitude who came to him at the Jordan River- "You brood of vipers" (Luke 3:7). When Christianity comes to Yahweh's Jordan that brings His Remnant into the promised land, that Jordan that has an Elijah standing on its banks declaring truth and calling others out, it comes to that river of cleansing as nothing less that what it truly is - a "brood of vipers."

And though we cannot digress on this brief next point, as we mentioned earlier in this writing, consistently Christianity is represented throughout the Scriptures by the element of bronze (e.g., the beast's bronze claws). So, what material was it that was used to make the serpent that was lifted up on a standard in the wilderness? Of course it was bronze - the bronze serpent - the church's body of Christ that must likewise take up its cross and die! And in equal testimony to Christianity, we see that even as the institution of the Satan-dominated church is often worshipped over Yahshua, so the bronze serpent on the standard was soon worshipped by the Israelites. In 2 Kings 18:4, we see that when King Hezekiah cleansed the nation of its idolatry and sin, one of the things he did was break into pieces the bronze serpent.

He removed the high places and broke down the pillars and cut down the Asherah (a female deity). He also broke in pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had made, for until those days the sons of Israel burned incense to it; and it was called Nehushtan (meaning, "a piece of bronze" - Christianity).

We will provide one more evidence concerning the bronze of Christianity later again in this writing.

Have you seen enough? No? Let us go on. We are not near finished with the unmistakable and highly revealing testimonies this engraving of the beast on Africa/Christianity provides. And do not lose heart, for there is yet some most exciting evidence still ahead.

THE SERPENT KINGDOM, PART II

Note that the cranial region of Satan's skull is almost entirely occupied by the vast Sahara desert. This is not because Satan lacks intelligence. Not at all. Remember, this is Christianity, and Christians have been in a drought of truth because of the deceiver for their entire 2,000 years. This is the drought of truth that is pictured in numerous places throughout the Bible, including the three year drought (the period of the church) which was ended by second Remnant Elijah's intercession.

Note the eye of Satan that is formed by Lake Victoria. There are many victories Satan has known since he caused man to fall in the garden 6,000 years ago. His greatest victory then, and still his greatest victory now, is to kill men. You will recall that Kilimanjaro is the tallest peak in the continent of Africa. There is obviously great and very meaningful prophetic significance that this highest peak is located directly in the forefront of the vision of the eye formed by Lake Victoria. Certainly, to Kill-a-man is Satan's highest goal! He Killed Adam and Eve, he has Killed all men since that time, he Killed the Savior, and still he takes great pleasure in every day Killing the sons of God who seek to follow after Yahshua in His kingdom on this earth, Satan's earth. That lofty peak of Kill-a-man-jaro is indeed a most lofty goal and purpose of Africa-engraved Satan.

Revelation tells us of another death which Satan sought with great zeal. You will notice the mouth of Satan that is formed by the great Limpopo River (or, Crocodile River). This is the mouth that utters "greatly," as we read in Daniel. And these are the waters of Revelation 12 which are spewed out of the mouth of the same great red dragon with the seven heads of the church that are "seven diadems," and the same "ten horns" that we just read of in Daniel. Remember, Satan's authority is so great over the church, that the identity of both Satan and Christianity are wholly absorbed under the identity of Satan, the serpent.

When Jerusalem above was preparing to give birth to the first Remnant by the outpouring of the Holy Spirit (the birth water), Revelation 12:4-5 tell us - "the dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she gave birth he might devour (like a crocodile) her child. And she gave birth to a son, a male (the first Remnant), who is to rule (with Yahshua) all the nations with a rod of iron; and her child was caught up to God and to His throne (under the altar - Revelation 6:9-11)." For this reason, you will notice that Satan's gaze is intently cast upon the island of MADagascar, with whom he is MAD! This is the Remnant child whom Satan had hoped to "devour," but was removed to the throne of God to be under His altar until the second Remnant could be established.

This testimony revealed here in Revelation 12 regarding the male child is the identical prophetic testimony of Jude, verse 9, where Michael the archangel "disputed with the devil and argued about the body of Moses." This is very important to note. As we have seen numerous times in other writings, Moses prophetically represented the first Remnant that had to die in order to enter the kingdom later. Satan could not have the rights to the first Remnant's bodies, any more than he could have the rights to the body of Moses or, as we see here, the male child. Even as Moses died and could not enter into the promised land, the first Remnant died and did not enter into the promised kingdom while in their flesh. Let us look further at this clear and revealing testimony concerning Moses.

In Jude, we find that Moses' body was contested for by Michael the archangel. Why? Because in time Moses was to enter the promised land on the mount of transfiguration in glorious splendor with Yahshua and the one who did not die - Elijah. This act by Michael was a foretelling picture of what would happen to the "Moses" first Remnant. As Moses' body was claimed by the angel, and as the male child was "caught up to God and to His throne," so the first Remnant was caught up to the throne of God, even as stated in Revelation 6:9-11. Satan was rebuked regarding his rights to them, and they were taken to the throne of God to remain there until the Elijah second Remnant could come and stand with them before Yahshua in transfigured shining glory on His mountain. As we will see next, this setting apart of the first Remnant was a most damaging event for Satan! Satan's first slip in authority that will eventually bring his downfall was the establishment, marking, and setting aside of the first Remnant.

Subsequent to Satan's loss of the first Remnant "child," he threw out a flood of false doctrines, teachings, experiences, and works that the earthy church has totally taken in! Verse 15 tells us - "And the serpent threw water like a (Limpopo) river out of his mouth after the woman (Jerusalem above), so that he might cause her to be swept away by the flood." Each year the Limpopo/Crocodile River attests to this flood of error by spewing out great torrents of water during the flood season. Verse 16 goes on - "the earth (including the earthy church) opened its mouth and drank up the river (of false teachings) which the dragon threw out of his mouth." You do not realize how thoroughly corrupt the "earthy" church is, both in practice and in beliefs!

The church is under the dominion of Satan, the dragon, the Antiochus antichrist who is the "abomination of desolation;" and anyone who takes the name "Christian" (the name that was given by the people of Antioch [which was founded by Antiochus], who also stoned Paul and left him for dead, and the selfsame place from which Paul based his "ministry") is under the dominion of the one whose face Yahweh engraved on the land that represents the seven-eyed church - Africa. If you do not believe this, then consider - Who will gain the victory at the end of your life? Death, which Satan has the power thereof, will overtake you. And equally, why are your beliefs different from every other Christian? Why is it that Christians do not have one common truth, or one common fellowship? And why do Christians gather in buildings they call the church, and on their church's head is a little horn?

Am I a Christian? Absolutely not! I make no claim to being a part of a kingdom dominated by Satan, but cry out instead to be a part of the "gold" that comes out of Satan dominated Christianity. I do not want my body to be claimed by Satan, but rather desire to be taken to Jerusalem above to be a part of His temple. I am a part of the Remnant - the only hope for man in these last days and in all time to come! Christians are my brothers, even as Esau was the brother of Jacob. But I am not a part of the Esau Christian church that loses their birthright because they remain in the flesh (they desire that "red [Adam] stuff" - Genesis 25:30); I am a part of the Jacob Remnant that receives the birthright. I am a part of the new wineskin Remnant, and not the old and stiff wineskin of Christianity.

Adding greater detail to our examination of Yahweh's engraving of Satan, let us now consider two more wonderful and most marvelous testimonies concerning Satan's head! The awesomeness of these two testimonies provided by Yahweh in the creation of this continent and those around it, a creation formed from the foundation of the earth, goes beyond words!

First, most importantly, you will notice that the foot of Italy is crushing the head of Africa, the "serpent"! In fact, not only is there the dramatically evident foot just above the head of Satan Africa, but there is even the corresponding sign of the blow to the head, evidenced by a remarkably obvious part of the skull crushed in at the precise point of the impact of the foot. This representation as witnessed in the physical relationship between Italy and Africa, as well as the geographic design of these two land masses, is nothing less than the visual testimony of the curse on the serpent:

The seed of the woman first Remnant "shall bruise you (Satan) on the head"
(Genesis 3:15).

We see visually evidenced here the effectual work accomplished by the establishment of the "seed of the woman" first Remnant. When the first Remnant was established, a great blow was landed upon Satan's head, evidenced by the dramatic visual testimony of Italy and Africa.

Why is the proportionally "little" foot of Italy Yahweh's design to bruise the much greater head of Satan? Because the first Remnant was a little work, lasting only one and one-half years and relatively few in number. Even as we have seen that America, as well as Africa, exhibit clear prophetic evidences per their individual representations, so Italy clearly represents a prophetic picture or work. Italy prophetically represents the Remnant, more specifically the first Remnant here in its relationship to Africa. In Two Trees In The Garden, we clearly saw that the tree of life is the Remnant work. Equally, we saw that the tree of life in the garden of Eden was an olive tree. Appropriately, Italy is the largest producer of olives in the world. The tree of life olive tree, the two olive tree "sons of fresh oil" (Zechariah 4), the "olive leaf" that the Holy Spirit "dove" brought to Noah at the end of Yahweh's flood (Genesis 8:11), the two parts of the breach-split Mount of Olives (Zechariah 14:4-5), and the "two olive trees" that are the witnesses in Revelation 11, are all the "little" two Remnants - the first which will "bruise" the great head of Satan! And olive rich Italy has the distinct purpose, and here we see the geographical uniqueness, of being the first Remnant foot that bruises the head of Satan.

Second, notice that there is a "hole" in Satan's head that is formed by Lake Chad? What is this mark fixed on this engraving of Satan? It is nothing less than the mark where Jael placed the tent peg on sleeping Sisera's temple, and with her hammer drove it into his head to the ground (Judges 4:17-21)! Chad means "battle or warrior," as Sisera was a warrior. Chad is also found in the name of Mystery Babylonian church representative NebuCHADnezzar.

Yahshua bears on his body the marks of the church. The two Remnants are His pierced hands (the first Remnant that identified with His death) and His pierced side (the second Remnant as the bride that will come out of the side of the body of Christ). Both of these with which Thomas Didymus (Thomas the twin, the Remnant twin) identified by placing his finger in Yahshua's hand, and his hand in His side (John 20:24-29). "I will not believe," said Thomas the twin, until I "put my finger into the place of the nails, and my hand into His side." The two-part Remnant are the fulfillment of this two-part test or evidence necessary for Thomas to believe.

Yahshua also bears on His body the marks of Christianity - the pierced feet that lose the rights to the kingdom, with which Remnant Thomas did not identify, though obviously available. We will consider later in this writing more on this important testimony regarding Thomas.

If Yahshua bears on His body the marks of His death, would it not be surprising that Satan equally bears on his body the marks of his death? We find here on Yahweh's engraving of Satan that he will indeed bear on his head the two wounds of the two Remnants. The first Remnant bruised his head, and the second Remnant will afford the death-blow tent peg to his temple! This is the two-blow death that will be effected against Satan, and forever he will bear those attesting wounds, even as Yahshua bears His.

Let us digress here concerning this affirming and most exciting testimony of second Remnant Jael who drove the tent peg into Sisera's head. What do you understand concerning the second Remnant? Do you understand that of the two Remnant parts, the second generally has the greater testimony of being the bride of Yahshua (as we saw with the sign to Thomas Didymus - the hand in the side)? And do you understand that the second Remnant is specifically the Elijah that will precede the return of Yahshua; and as Elijah it will have the MOST important work of ascending alive to heaven? These are two very important and most noteworthy points concerning the second Remnant.

In this very revealing and remarkably accurate engraving of Satan, the second Remnant act of the tent peg to Sisera Satan's head is equally and clearly confirmed on several points in Yahweh's testimony regarding Jael. We find that the Scriptures provide multiple evidences identifying Jael as a prophetic second Remnant, portending the blow to Sisera's head as precisely the second death blow that will be afflicted on Satan by the second Remnant. Keeping in mind what we just reviewed in the last paragraph concerning the second Remnant, let us see what testimony Yahweh has provided concerning second Remnant Jael. We will limit ourselves to only a few points, as there are many.

Jael was the bride of Heber. Jael's name means - he will arise, or he will ascend. What does this say to us? Jael is the Elijah second Remnant that will "arise," will "ascend" to heaven alive. Jael was the bride of Heber. Heber means - that which passes further, or not of this world. What do we see? Jael was the bride of him who was "not of this world;" or in other words, the Remnant is the bride of Him who is not of this world - Yahshua. Thus we see in the meaning of these two names - the Elijah second Remnant will arise or ascend alive to heaven to be the bride of Him who is not of this world, Yahshua. Both of these testimonies, and much more, bear clear witness that Jael is the prophetic second Remnant that effects the second final blow of death to the head of Satan.

There is so very much more here. The tent peg driven in by Jael with a hammer went through Sisera's head to the ground. Each of these points are prophetic - the tent peg, Sisera's head, the hammer, driving the peg into the ground (that was cursed because of Satan's work), all have great and revealing prophetic significance. Sisera asked for water, but Jael gave him the milk of the kingdom. And like all of Christianity, and like the three Christianity witnesses who slept on the mount of transfiguration while the two-part Remnant was glorified, Sisera slept while the tent peg was driven into his head.

Have you ever seen someone, or have you experienced this yourself, that when too much information is given out for the brain to process, their eyes glaze over? Honestly, there is so much affirming information here concerning Satan, Christianity, and the two Remnant, that the great fault of it is that it overwhelms people and their brains glaze over. Apologies are offered here for giving so much information; but, there is so much here, and Yahweh is such a vast vast God, and He confirms His truth over and over and over again, that it is hard to hold back. Try to digest all of this slowly if you can. But, onward we go.

Dare we add another striking and quite interesting and affirming testimony? We know, having it here refreshed in our minds, that it is the work of the Elijah second Remnant that effects the death of Satan. What is it that most effects this? They defeat him who has the power of death (Satan), by ascending alive into heaven. Since Yahweh does nothing new under the sun, not even the North Carolina sun, let us see another more recent testimony regarding the second Remnant's Elijah death blow to Satan.

Precisely 100 years ago, at the turn of the twentieth century, my cousins, the Wright brothers, began testing their first man-carrying glider at Kitty Hawk. In 1903, seven men (two flew while five watched) witnessed the world's first flight in which man entered into the heavens. Now, 100 years later, at the turn of the twenty-first century, one of their kindred (Cousin Orville's life ended in 1948, the same year my life was brought forth) is once again learning what it will take to ascend alive into the heavens where no man has entered before, but this time at a much higher level.

Few believed the initial progress or the achievements of my cousins, and now a hundred years later few believe the testimony regarding this higher flight. But, that which has been is that which will be, and this kinsman is as confident and unscathed by the many seemingly impossible difficulties and criticisms, as were his victorious cousins. This is our confidence, this is our victory - When my cousins entered alive into the heavens at the turn of the twentieth century, they rose from the ground that was known then and is known today to be none other than Kill Devil Hill! When we, Yahweh's Elijah Remnant, soon equally arise into the heavens where no man has gone, we will leave the same confident final-blow testimony - the Devil is killed!

Do you now have enough evidence to persuade you that Christianity is clearly the first sign of the staff that turns into the serpent? The hope and great anticipation we have is that the Elijah will effect its much needed work, and the Ancient of Days will come and judgment will be passed in favor of the saints of the Highest One, and the saints will take possession of the kingdom. Satan's dominion that he has maintained over the church for its entirety "will be taken away, annihilated and destroyed forever. Then the sovereignty, the dominion, and the greatness of all the kingdoms under the whole heaven will be given to the people of the saints of the Highest One; His kingdom will be an everlasting kingdom, and all the dominions will serve and obey Him." Until this takes place however, Satan remains the ruler of Christianity. The next great and much needed work will be the taking out of a people - the second Remnant - that will effect the tent peg to the temple of Satan. (Does this not sound similar to the "temple of God," as men call them, where the beast's little horn now resides?) They will be the gold that is taken from Christianity that will be caught up alive to Jerusalem above (where the first Remnant already exist) to be formed into Yahweh's true temple.

But up to now, despite the dominion of Satan over Christianity, this first work of the kingdom of God has been Yahweh's attesting sign that has caused men for the last 2,000 years to believe. Christianity has been Yahweh's first sign of turning the staff into a serpent; but equally, it will be to turn the serpent back into a staff! This latter work is the glorious part of this sign that we longingly await - removing Satan from the church.

SATAN AND THE FLESH

Though this is repetitious of some of the information presented in Two Trees In The Garden, and though this information further lengthens an already lengthy writing, it seems only fitting and necessary towards making this writing complete, to take a moment to address the other half of the problem that is inherent with Christianity - the flesh!

If the presence of Satan was not already enough to corrupt the kingdom of God given to man, solely from the mere fact that the kingdom was given to man while in the flesh that is of this earth, was enough to insure that the kingdom would be wholly defiled. Let us see in part what the Scriptures have to say concerning this flesh we live in, this flesh that houses the kingdom of God.

- From the Scriptures we find that the flesh is:
- "Hostile toward God" and "cannot please God" (Romans 8:7-8),
- "Sets its desire against the Spirit" (Galatians 5:17),
- Its deeds include the formidable list of - "impurity, enmities, factions (22,000 sects and denominations), anger," and even more (Galatians 5:19-21),
- It is the source of lusts (Romans 13:14),

- Its desires are corrupt (2 Peter 2:10),
- It makes one "a prisoner of the law of sin" (Romans 7:23), and
- Its fruit is "corruption" (Galatians 6:8).

And this is the recipient of the pure kingdom of God? This corrupt flesh is now supposed to take the pure kingdom and glorify God? All one has to do is take a quick look at the church and one will see that the flesh has performed in the kingdom precisely what one would expect - it made the kingdom impure, corrupt, divided, and full of lust and sin. The church, with its sore condition of being placed in bodies that are from this cursed earth, as well as being under the corrupting affects of Satan, is in truth "hostile toward God" and "cannot please God." Yahshua's own conclusion as to His relationship with man and the pure representation of His kingdom is grievously and painfully clear - "But Jesus, on His part, was not entrusting Himself to them, for He knew all men" (John 2:24), even Christian men. Thus we agonize with Paul - "Wretched man that I am! Who will set me free from this body of death?"

Earlier in this writing, we quoted the passage in Isaiah 14:29 regarding the Philistines, which states - "For from the serpent's root (the church's very beginning) a viper will come out, and its fruit will be a flying serpent ("the prince of the power of the air")." The Philistines prophetically represent Satan, for numerous reasons. Do you recall that the holy ark of the covenant was taken captive by the Philistines and placed in their own temple to Dagon. So what do we have here? This was the holy in the profane. Is not this precisely what Yahweh has done by giving His Holy Spirit to profane earthly man? And taking this one step further, is this not precisely what Christianity is? It is the holy things of Yahweh in Dagon's temple. Do you know what Dagon was? Dagon was the fish god! Does that sound familiar? The fish that is the sign taken by many Christians is the testimony of Dagon's temple. And for how long was the presence of Yahweh held in that temple? For seven months (1 Samuel 6:1)! Seven is the number of churches in Revelation. This is nothing less than the testimony of Yahweh's holy presence residing in the corruption of earthly flesh and Christianity. Christianity is the ark of Yahweh in the temple of Dagon.

How bad does bad have to look before one begins to get the idea of the GREAT problem that is created by giving the kingdom of Yahweh to men in earthly flesh? What is earthly flesh? Let us see another dramatic and highly revealing testimony. In it we will equally see that there is a direct relationship between the flesh and the one who has dominion over the flesh-occupying church. Once you see this evidence, you will understand even more the GREAT difficulty associated with earthly flesh receiving the kingdom of God.

Man's body comes from the dust of this earth (and to dust it returns). Adam's body was created by Yahweh from the dust of the earth; and each and every body since then (including yours) was equally created from the dust of this earth. Your mother, while creating you in her womb, ate food that either came directly from the earth, or from animals which ate food directly from the earth. Thus your body equally came from the earth, and is maintained from the earth, the earth over which Satan has dominion. Now for a revealing truth.

Within the human fertilization process (the beginning of the creation of the human body), a prophetic and revealing drama is enacted time and time again. Anyone who has looked at a scientific journal, book, or video and seen the minute process of fertilization, has beheld within that drama the graphic problem of earth-born existence.

In Revelation 12:9 we read - "And the great dragon was thrown down, the serpent of old who is called the Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world; he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him." Now let us see the significance of this drama.

The sperm, which in all appearance and shape looks like a serpent, is "thrown down" to the egg, which in all appearance and shape is a very small world or earth (though infinitesimally smaller). The serpent-appearing sperm enters the earth-appearing egg (both bearing obvious prophetic significance), to produce carnal bodies that in and of themselves are in equal opposition to God as is the serpent! Only Yahweh knows the full extent of Yahshua's words - "You are of your father the devil" (John 8:44).

Certainly we know that this carnal flesh, this earthly body, this product of the serpent sperm and the earth egg, is indeed - "hostile toward God" and "cannot please God" (Romans 8:7-8), "sets its desire against the Spirit" (Galatians 5:17), makes one "a prisoner of the law of sin" (Romans 7:23), is corrupt (Galatians 6:8, 2 Peter 2:10), is the source of lusts (Romans 13:14), and the list goes on! Is it not thus wholly fitting that this corrupt rebellious vessel we receive from the earth where Satan has been thrown down and is master, is given to us by a symbolic "serpent" being cast down to an "earth"? And is it no surprise that when Yahweh gave His kingdom into the hands of men who reside in these corrupt bodies, and who equally have the serpent inhabiting their everyday lives, that the church, Christianity, is identified with the beast with the little horn, that is the devil, the "serpent of old," as seen in Africa, the "snake kingdom"? Oh, can you not see how dire a situation in which the church has been for 2,000 years?

All men from Adam to this moment are born of this earth. This is a great problem! All men to this moment are Adam. The only one who has ever come into this earth who is not born of this earth is Yahshua, the anointed. He was not born of the seed of man, but of the Holy Spirit. Of Him we read - "He who comes from above is above all, he who is of the earth is from the earth and speaks of the earth (which belongs to Satan). He who comes from heaven is above all" (John 3:31). Additionally, Yahshua declared - "You are from below, I am from above; you are of this world; I am not of this world" (John 8:23). Yahshua is singularly the only one who has ever come from above. The seed that produced His body was not carnal, not of the serpent, but distinctly and uniquely the Holy Spirit (Luke 1:35).

Man's only hope, the church's only hope in this imposing dilemma, is to enter into the distinctly contrasting experience in which Yahshua came to this earth. He too had a body, but His body was not of the seed of man; He had no association via origin with the little sperm serpent Satan. Clearly, Yahshua told us that He was conceived from above by the Spirit. Instead of the serpent sperm descending on the earth egg, John the Baptist beheld the contrasting testimony - the dove of the Holy Spirit descending and remaining on the Son of God.

This Spirit-conceived birth is exactly what we as mortal men need. This is precisely what Yahshua was saying when in this same conversation with Nicodemus He told him - "You must be born from above." This clear distinction, contrast, and dilemma is seen in Yahshua's words - "That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is Spirit" (John 3:6). As long as we are in carnal bodies, as long as the church is in carnal bodies, as long as we are in this flesh of the serpent sperm, we will be at enmity with God. We must have new bodies that are born of the Spirit, born from above. Yahshua alone could say He always did the will of the Father who sent Him, because He was not in a body whose seed was from Satan's world. Likewise, we cannot walk as Yahshua walked in full and complete obedience, the church cannot walk in full and complete obedience, until we too enter into a body that has its origin from the Spirit, from above. Could anything be clearer? Man, the church, is in desperate need to get out of this body, and to be born from above by the Spirit!

This completes our study of Yahweh's first sign He will perform in order to cause men to believe - turning the staff into a serpent, and then returning the staff to its original state. This clearly is the first work in the kingdom of God - the sign of Christianity. For almost 2,000 years man has had the sign of the staff-turned-serpent, or the snake on the pole, the snake in the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, or the snake kingdom. And the church awaits the much needed reversal of becoming a staff once again.

Fortunately, this is not the only sign Yahweh will perform to cause men to believe, and thus deliver them from Egypt. There is the promise that if they did not believe this first sign, then they would believe with the second sign. This is a wonderful promise, for there are many in mankind that have not believed after the first sign of Christianity. What will be this second persuading sign? Let us now see.

THE HAND IN THE BOSOM

The transition of this writing from the first sign to the second sign requires some necessary observation and commentary concerning the times we live in, as well as some very frank and straight forward comments on some of the accepted and enthusiastic teachings of this time.

Men everywhere are looking for and widely espousing all sorts of holocaust, cataclysmic, end time, World War III, beast dominated, bar code events that culminate into some "great tribulation" prior to the return of Yahshua. But nothing could be further from the truth of what will indeed come to pass. These are the often fictitious and even science fiction teachings coming from the source you observed whose face is engraved on the "snake kingdom" - the little horn that has a mouth that utters greatly, out of which comes a flood of false teachings. These are the science fiction thoughts of carnal earth-occupying fleshly men, liken unto those who came to John the Baptist to whom he declared - "you brood of vipers." Their ideas are all wrath, wrath, wrath, and they comb through current events for anything they can find to validate the devastation they falsely forecast. It is rightly written regarding the one who has authority over them and their teachings - "And the great dragon was thrown down, the serpent of old who is called the Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world," including all those who are in Christianity's "snake kingdom."

Remember, the first sign was a staff turned into a serpent; and that serpent has not yet been put away. He still has the freedom and authority to deceive which he has had from the beginning; and it seems that knowing his days are few, his teachings and the fervency with which they are embraced is ever so prevalent.

Of course the nature of deception is that no one knows they are deceived. Every Christian is fully and sincerely persuaded that they have "the truth," and every Christian has their Bible to prove it. But look once again at the face of him who is over Christianity and who has all authority to "deceive the whole world," and reconsider prevalent wrath-filled end time teachings. Who are these teachers from? They are from him who LOVES wrath - Satan! Christians with their end time dooms day drama and their "eternal hell fire punishment" are like the sons of thunder who wanted to call down fire on the unbelieving, those who resisted them. If you are looking for Yahweh's wrath, you will not find it in these days prior to the return of Yahshua. No, but instead mercy will triumph over judgment, even as it is written (James 2:13).

Yahweh's testimony or second sign to mankind will not be devastation. Instead, it will be just the opposite. His return and the time just before will be the expression of His own loving nature and goodness and mercy towards man, which man desperately needs! Yahweh's second sign will not be a plague (as we will address), it will be LIFE!

To introduce you to the fulfillment of this second and much needed and, as we will see, vitally important sign evidenced to Moses, let us recall from Two Trees In The Garden that the second tree central to that highly prophetic and most revealing garden beginning was the much preferable tree of life. From that writing, and addressed here, we saw that the first tree in the garden of God, or the kingdom of God, has been the serpent-inhabiting tree of the knowledge of good and evil of Christianity. This is well defined and established in these writings, and should be quite obvious to the reader by now. The second tree, or second work, in that kingdom garden will be the tree of life. We have pointed out before that that MOST needed tree is the two-part Remnant work that will be the first to join Yahshua in born from above imperishable bodies.

With this clear and revealing truth refreshed before us, one should gather most quickly that equally and most expectantly the next sign Yahweh will perform for mankind to cause man to believe is not the wrath that Satan spews out of his mouth, but just the opposite (which we should expect), it is the formation of the preceding Elijah work tree of life two-part Remnant. Truly, Hallelu-Yah!

While Christianity looks for and widely teaches that wrath is coming, Yahweh is preparing to bring to this earth for the first time His born-from-above tree of life work. How? He will pour out His Spirit in the latter rain and complete the work He began almost 2,000 years ago with the former rain. The former rain began the work to take a people to Jerusalem above and give them bodies that are not of this serpent sperm and earth egg, but rather bodies that are conceived of the Holy Spirit. But, there was a breach in that work. The first Remnant were the first to receive the Holy Spirit while in earthly flesh, and they corrupted the kingdom - the bride ate from the forbidden fruit first. The bride then gave the fruit to the masculine body of Christ, and the breach period has been the fulfillment of that death producing tree up to today. And even as Adam and Eve were cast out of the garden so that they could not eat from the tree of life, so the latter rain tree of life has been unavailable to the Christianity. Although men like Saint Frances of Assisi and others saw the vision of that tree, they could not eat of it either. No, the church has not had access to the tree of life work. Will the availability return? Will men have the opportunity to eat from that tree? That question brings us to the great need and promise of the second sign:

And Yahweh furthermore said to him, "Now put your hand into your bosom." So he put his hand into his bosom, and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous like snow. The He said, "Put your hand into your bosom again." So he put his hand into his bosom again; and when he took it out of his bosom, behold, it was restored like the rest of his flesh. "And it shall come about that if they will not believe you or heed the witness of the first sign, they will believe the witness of the last sign."

Have men believed from the first sign? Absolutely! That is the purpose of the first sign, and it has indeed caused men to believe. But, that sign is not enough. There is still remaining a MOST important sign that must be performed. This is the sign concerning which Yahweh declared - "And it shall come about that if they will not believe you or heed the witness of the first sign, they will believe the witness of the last sign."

Men have believed under the first sign of Christianity, but that sign is a corrupted, serpent dominated, death resulting sign that cries out for the most needed second sign of the two-part Remnant. While the first sign was purposeful and had its place in convincing men that Yahweh is God, it is the second sign that has the promise that if the first sign is not successful, then the second sign will cause men to believe.

How is it that this second sign is evidenced to be the two-part Remnant? You have already seen that this sign is a two-part sign, or a two-part work, even as the Remnant is a two-part work. The first Remnant is the placing of the hand into the bosom and it coming out leprous. This is precisely what happened to Yahshua's disciples whom He personally called out and established. These men and their followers were placed in the bosom of Yahweh; but, being men of earthly flesh and occupying a kingdom that is on this earth and under the dominion of Satan, when they were examined, they were unclean as with leprosy. And given these conditions, what more would one expect? The first Remnant was the hand going into the bosom and returning leprous. The second Remnant will be the second placement of the hand into the bosom, and it coming out clean and restored.

This is the same picture seen with the two birds in Leviticus 14 that were necessary for the cleansing of the person who had been healed of precisely the same disease - leprosy. You might recall from other writings here that the first Remnant was the first bird that was slain over an earthen vessel over running water, its blood being collected in the vessel. The next and final step towards the needed cleansing was the role of the second bird. The second bird was taken out to an open field, dipped into the blood of the first bird that was slain, and then released alive in the open field. There is no mistaking that the testimony clearly evidenced here is the work of the two-part Remnant.

The first Remnant is the first bird that was killed over an earthen vessel (their earthen bodies) over running water (Pentecost), and their blood (their life) was collected (even as Moses' body was secured, or as the male child was caught up to heaven). The second Remnant will be the second bird that is dipped into the blood of the first bird - they will have the calling, power, purpose, and certainly the prayers of the first Remnant. Fulfilling the vital work begun by the first Remnant, the second Remnant will be released alive in the open field to ascend to Yahweh. Just what that second anointing, a double portion anointing, will entirely accomplish in us is to be seen. One thing for certain though, it will cause us to walk in Him to the extent that we will ascend alive into heaven, even as did Enoch in the seventh generation.

The similarity of both of these testimonies involving leprosy and, more specifically, its cure, is quite obvious. The first bird that had to die (because of the sin or uncleanness of the leper), and the first placement of the hand into the bosom to come out leprous, are the same sign, the same work. They both portend the work of the first Remnant that had to die, not entering into the promised land, because they had to identify with unclean man and death. This is the bride that ate the forbidden fruit first. There is so very much to this which we cannot address here. But, this is only the first and much needed preceding part of this two-part work, which necessitates the second part to this sign in order to accomplish its complete purpose.

The second part to this two-part sign is the testimony seen in the second bird that was released alive, or the second time that the hand went into the bosom and came out clean from its previous leprous condition. Both of these testimonies reveal the second part of this two-part sign, and that is the work of the second Remnant. What an exciting and thought provoking proposition it is that this second work will now be clean and complete! Hallelu-Yah!

Thus, we see that the next sign that Yahweh will perform among mankind to cause him to believe, is not some wrathful cataclysmic beast dominated holocaust of destruction; but rather, it will be the attesting sign of the establishment of the second Remnant and its release to ascend alive to heaven to be glorified with the preceding first Remnant. This is the second sign that will cause men to believe. This is the sign of mercy triumphing over judgment. This is the sign of the tree of life, and not the death which Satan-dominated Christianity wants men to believe. There will be no bloodletting and holocaust that will introduce the tree of life. Life needs no such contradicting and evil foreboding introduction. Life comes to conquer death, not to increase it. Life comes to conquer death, and death must yield to its victor! Hallelu-Yah for life!

Another enlightening testimony that this second sign is the work of the two-part Remnant is the testimony evidenced by the bosom. Both of these signs that Yahweh will perform for mankind have in them the identities of their fulfillments. The first sign is identified with the staff and the serpent; both of which specifically relate to Christianity. This is supported and revealed by other testimonies as well. What are the identifying qualities of the second sign? We have already considered one such identifying quality - the two-part work of dealing with the leprosy of sin. The other identifying quality seen here is the bosom.

There are many testimonies regarding the bosom that relate to this matter of the two-part Remnant. It is not so expedient that we go into these to the extent that we did with matters regarding the first sign. If you see the remarkable truth of the first sign, you will be far more receptive to the testimony and evidence regarding the second sign. Without going into a great deal of explanation, let us quickly cover some of the attesting evidences that the bosom relates to the two-part Remnant.

The bosom is the testimony of intimacy. The most persuasive evidence of this intimacy and its relationship to the Remnant is revealed by John (the witness of the pure kingdom of God) as he reclined on Yahshua's breast at the supper prior to His crucifixion. John was the disciple of whom it was written - "There was reclining on Jesus' breast one of His disciples, whom Jesus loved" (John 13:23). Over and over in John, this phrase, "whom Jesus loved," is used to identify John, the disciple. The intimacy of reclining on the breast of a man is most often reserved for his bride. Prophetically, John is the bride figure; and this intimacy is seen most vividly here as John reclined on Yahshua's breast.

The breast or bosom also speaks of intimacy for the woman, intimacy both toward her husband, as well as for the care and nourishment of her children. The breast of the woman is the source of the milk for nursing her child. And milk, we know, is a picture of the provision of the promised land - a land of milk and honey.

Not only do we see the pure kingdom of God evidenced in the gospel of John (recall that representation as pointed out in Key To Their Understanding) where the one whom Yahshua loved reclined on His breast, but also in the breast of the woman which provides the promise of the kingdom - milk.

Providing further evidence to this testimony of the two-part Remnant are the words of the most intimate book, accepted as being the testimony of Yahshua and His bride - the Song of Solomon. In chapter 8, verses 8 through 10, we read:

"We have a little sister,
And she has no breasts;
What shall we do for our sister
On the day when she is spoken for?
If she is a wall,
We shall build on her a battlement of silver;

But if she is a door,
 We shall barricade her with planks of cedar."
 "I was a wall, and my breasts were like towers;
 Then I became in his eyes as one who finds peace."

Here we clearly see the testimony of the two-part Remnant associated with the two sisters, relating specifically to the sizes of their breasts. The first Remnant is seen as the first sister who "has no breasts." Like the little sister, the first Remnant never had the timing nor the ability for their kingdom nourishment-providing capabilities to develop. They were cut short; they were incapable. When the first Remnant was spoken for by Yahshua, they were barricaded - preserved for the day when once again they will be called to be united with the second Remnant whose breasts will indeed fully develop. The second Remnant will be the sister whose "breasts were like towers." She is the sister who comes to full maturity, providing the nourishment and pleasure that her breasts afford to the intimate ones of her life. The "towers" speak to the kingdom ability to elevate the second Remnant to heaven as the Elijah.

This is the intimacy and provision of the breast; and this is the intimacy depicted by Yahweh when He promised to perform this second sign to cause men to believe. He would perform a work with His two-part Remnant - the first whom He would draw into His bosom would become leprous, but the second whom He would draw into His bosom would be healed.

This is also the breast testimony of the breastpiece of judgment which the high priest wore "over his heart" (Exodus 28:15-30). This is the breastpiece that had the two golden rings (the two Remnant) and the two stones, the Urim and the Thummim that were so closely associated with the priesthood (again, the two Remnant).

And there is further testimony. The breast in the great statue of King Nebuchadnezzar's dream was a breast of silver (Daniel 2:32), the element most frequently identified specifically with the Remnant (recall the "battlement of silver" identified with the two sisters). Historically, the breast that was depicted here was fulfilled by the Medo-Persian empire that conquered the Babylonian empire. And thus once again we see the breast associated specifically with a two-part Remnant-representing work - here the union of the Medes and the Persians.

In familiar contrast, the next part of the great statue was the belly of bronze. Now when we mention bronze, from what has already been pointed out in this writing you should immediately think of Christianity. And this is precisely the testimony delivered here on the higher kingdom of God level regarding this statue. Let us demonstrate this further.

What was the object that was on the bronze pole that was fashioned in the wilderness? Was it not the bronze serpent? Indeed. This was the Nehushtan (meaning, a piece of bronze), which the people later worshiped and it had to be destroyed (2 Kings 18:4). Now, to what course was the original serpent in the garden destined for his influence upon Eve the bride? Was it not a course of having to crawl on his belly? Are you putting these witnesses together by now? Do you not see the remarkable witness that (1.) a bronze belly, (2.) a bronze serpent, and (3.) a serpent that is cursed to crawl on its belly provides for our understanding, if we should have eyes to see? All three of these testimonies relate to one work - Christianity, that has neither the gold nor the silver, but the less valuable bronze; Christianity, that has the inhabiting serpent.

And please forgive a bit more expounding testimony on this, but we can also see through this repetitive and consistent testimony regarding the belly, that it is Christianity that is testified to when Jonah was in the "belly" of the great fish for three days (the three periods of the church). This is the same picture we have already seen when the ark of the covenant was in the temple of the Philistine Dagon fish god for seven months. Whether it was three days in the belly of the great fish, or seven months in the fish god's temple, the testimony is the same - it is Christianity, the holy in the profane.

Just as Christianity has become the greater evidence of the belly-crawling bronze serpent on the pole that was lifted up in the wilderness in order for men to be saved, so Christianity has become the fulfillment of Jonah in the belly of the great fish, or even in the Dagon fish. Both belly and bronze empirically speak of Christianity. Christianity has now been in the belly of the great fish for two of its three days, or 2,000 years.

You have seen already in this writing two graphic illustrations of the true state of Christianity - Satan's little-horned head in Africa, and the little-horned building Christians gather under (even calling their little-horned building, the "church"). Now let us see another sign with which Christianity is identified, which is far more revealing than they know. This is the sign of Christianity's true state of being in the belly of the great fish for three days, or the fish god's temple for seven months. And here is their exceptionally revealing sign.

CHRISTIANITY

In the belly of the fish

It is truly amazing that these graphic illustrations revealing Christianity's true state have always been before our eyes, but we have been completely blind to their true meaning. Praise Yahweh that He is starting to open our eyes so that we may see!

And dare we not say something about Judas, who for thirty pieces of silver betrayed Yahshua during the night with a kiss. Like the breast, the kiss is supposed to be a sign depicting affection; but his affection was deceptive. This is Judas, who after betraying Yahshua fell headlong, and "he burst open in the middle and all his bowels gushed out" (Acts 1:18). What burst open on Judas, but his belly? Because Christians judge themselves by themselves, they become their own standard, and they neither understand the way Yahweh truly sees them or the depravity and corruption and error of their present state. Instead of comparing themselves and the church with the standard Yahweh requires, they are content and far more comfortable to compare themselves with themselves, or compare one schism and denomination with another. This is a GREAT fallacy and deception, and leads all men to fall short.

If Christians truly understood the fix they are in, the great depravity with which they have existed in the kingdom of God for 2,000 years, then they would cry out to Yahweh in desperation for His help and deliverance. People do not realize that as Christians, compared to what Yahweh requires, they are a Judas, betraying Yahshua with the sign of affection, the kiss. With their mouths they say one thing, but with their lives they say another; and by this they betray the Master. Earthly corruption and Satan dominion has caused men and the church to be far, far less than what Yahweh requires or demands. Some day men will look back at Christianity from Jerusalem above and loath their behavior and beliefs, even the best of them.

Should this grave assessment cause us to lose all hope for this present state in the flesh? Yes! Especially now while Satan is the ruler of this world. There is no hope for earthly flesh. That is why it goes back to the earth. But most of all, this corrupt state we reside in now is great reason to call out to Yahweh for Him to perform His MOST needed second sign - the establishment of the tree of life two-part Remnant. It will be this work that will finally begin to deliver men from this corrupt state the church has been in for 2,000 years. Though man has been under the curse for 6,000 years, including 2,000 years of Christianity, Yahweh will soon begin to deliver man from this curse. A remnant of mankind will be caught up to heaven to receive their incorruptible born-from-above bodies, opening the way for this greatly needed change in mankind. For the first time, men, human beings (though glorified), will stand before other men (who will still be in the flesh of this earth), and be able to give them the infallible and pure instruction, counsel, and guidance of Yahweh for their good and wellbeing. These glorified ones will be the first true representatives of Yahweh; not those who are under Satan's deception, and judge themselves by themselves.

When a man stands in a pulpit and claims to represent Yahweh - this is not so! He cannot represent Yahweh, whom he neither truly knows nor understands. Those who will represent Yahweh in truth are those who will have become like Him, those whose bodies will be born from the mother above where He is. As John the Baptist declared, "He who comes from above is above all, he who is of the earth is from the earth and speaks of the earth. He who comes from heaven is above all" (John 3:31). This John declared concerning himself (earthly) and Yahshua (heavenly). But, the day is coming when the true Moses and Elijah fulfillments, the two-part Remnant, will return with Yahshua in glorified bodies, and those words by the prelude of Elijah - John - will entirely apply to these two witnesses and their message. The glorified Remnant will be the first from mankind who will no longer be of this earth, but will be "from above," and will not speak as from this earth, but will speak of that which is above.

There is one final most important and highly relevant evidence we must add upon closing this section. Its importance and relevance demands this.

It has been mentioned in the previous section that Thomas Didymus, Thomas the twin, reveals the two-part Remnant. The first Remnant identified with Yahweh's death (placing the finger "into the place of the nails"); and the second Remnant fulfills the pierced side by the bride coming out of the sleeping body (placing the "hand into His side"). These are the two works of the two-part Remnant.

While the hand twice into the bosom sign gives testimony to intimacy, the evidence offered in Thomas the twin gives testimony to the more technical aspect, affording more specific information as to what is involved here in this second two-part sign. It is important to note here though that both the two hands in the bosom testimony, and the finger in the hand and the hand in the side testimony, speak to one and the same work - the establishment of the two-part Remnant.

Furthermore, why did Thomas not say - "Unless I place my finger in His hand, my hand in His side, and my finger in His feet, I will not believe"? As we said previously, this latter evidence was obviously equally available to Thomas. The reason was, he was Thomas Didymus, the twin, and his request was for the explicit purpose of revealing the two-part finger-in-the-hand and hand-in-the-side Remnant. The third work or testimony of the pierced feet related to Christianity, and Thomas, in his representation of the two-part Remnant, would not identify with that work. Though the Remnant and Christianity are both the church, they are separate works with separate identities, as seen evidenced here by Thomas' request.

Now, a most important point must be noted in this greatly revealing testimony afforded in Thomas Didymus. Thomas declared, "Unless I shall see in His hands the imprint of the nails, and put my finger into the place of the nails, and put my hand into His side, I will not believe" (John 20:25).

Does this not sound familiar relative to what we have been seeing and learning? Do you not see that this is precisely the issue we have been examining in this writing? Thomas' expression concerning what it would take in order for him to believe, is the same issue of providing attesting evidence or signs to man so that he may believe. What Thomas requested is nothing less than the promise of the second sign given to Moses! What Thomas was in affect saying was - "Show me the second sign of Moses. I must see the two-part work attesting to the two-part Remnant. That is the only sign that will cause me to believe."

Did Yahshua show him this two-part Remnant sign? Indeed He did! While the disciples were behind closed doors, Yahshua came into their midst and declared to Thomas - "Reach here your finger, and see My hands; and reach here your hand, and put it into My side; and be not unbelieving, but believing." This sign to Thomas the twin was the sign that brought belief; and it is nothing less than the second sign that Yahweh performed by Moses placing his hand into his bosom twice. Both signs have the same fulfillment - the two-part Remnant. Both signs have a common purpose - to cause belief. Both signs address the placement of the hand into the body. Both signs speak of the same work. "That which has been, is that which will be," and what Yahweh testified to through the signs given to Moses, He equally testified to through the sign given to Thomas. Both signs speak of the same promise to bring forth His work of the two-part Remnant. More will be said regarding this very important witness in the next section.

It is hoped you now see not only the clear contrast of the first two signs that Yahweh will perform to cause men to believe, but also the GREAT need for the second sign. This is particularly relative to us today who undoubtedly will be the generation that will see and experience the fulfillment of the second Remnant. But there is more to this than just the awareness of these two signs and their fulfillments, which this writing has sought to bring to your attention and understanding. We need to take this one step further, and this we will do in the next section.

THE SIGN THAT AVERTS PLAGUES

Let us read once again in Exodus the promise regarding the second great sign that is given to cause men to believe:

"And it shall come about that if they will not believe you or heed the witness of the first sign, they will believe the witness of the last sign."

This is the promise of the second sign, the "last sign." With it is the assurance that if the first sign is not sufficient, then the second will be sufficient - "they will believe the witness of the last sign."

Exodus 4:30-31 tells us that Moses and Aaron "performed the signs in the sight of the people (the sons of Israel)," and "the people believed." While it does not say how many signs were performed, we certainly anticipate that the plural tense of the word "signs" would indicate that at least the first two signs were performed, which is most likely all that was necessary.

So, we see that these are in fact the signs that cause men to believe, in that the son's of Israel did believe. But when Moses went to Pharaoh, what signs did he perform?

The first sign performed to Pharaoh was once again the first sign that causes men to believe - he turned Aaron's rod into a snake and turned it back into a rod. Did Pharaoh believe at that point? No. In fact Pharaoh's heart was hardened.

So did Yahweh then perform the second sign that had the assurance that with it men would believe? In answering this, keep in mind here that the instruction of Yahweh to Moses at the burning bush was that "if they will not believe even these two signs or heed what you say, then you shall take some water from the Nile and pour it on the dry ground; and the water which you take from the Nile will become blood on the dry ground." But was the second sign to Pharaoh the convincing hand into the bosom? No, it was not.

This second sign had the promise that when performed, men would believe. Did Yahweh want Pharaoh to believe? Not at all. His plan for Pharaoh was to harden his heart and strike the Egyptians with His miracles, or His plagues. The first sign was just that, a sign. It was not a plague. Likewise, the second sign was a sign, and not a plague. But, the third sign had the potential of being more than a sign; it had the potential of becoming a plague that would affect everyone who lived along the great Nile River.

When Yahweh sent Moses to Pharaoh the second time, He did not want him to believe, for He was going to demonstrate His wrath and plagues upon him and Egypt. So, when the next sign was given to Pharaoh, Moses did not place his hand into his bosom twice, even as he undoubtedly performed for the sons of Israel. No, Moses was instructed to proceed with the third sign of turning the water of the Nile River into blood, which was only the beginning of a series of wholly destructive plagues that befell Egypt until Pharaoh finally let the sons of Israel go.

What do we see from this? Though the first sign is performed to Egypt, it is in fact the second sign that is profoundly critical for causing men to believe and averting the plagues and wrath of Yahweh.

Yahweh performed the first sign even to Egypt, for whom He had plans of wrath. But, He in no wise performed the second sign, which has the promise to believe. So, it can now be asked - What will Yahweh do at the close of this period of time before the return of Yahshua? Having performed the first sign of turning the staff into a serpent, i.e. - Christianity, will He now pour out His wrath as many Christians warn us? Will the plagues of Yahweh come upon mankind in order to deliver His people out of Egypt? The answer to this depends entirely on what sign Yahweh performs next.

Yahweh has performed the first sign of Christianity. If Yahweh performs His second sign that has the promise of a two-part Remnant work, then no, the plagues will not be necessary and men will believe. On the other hand, if Yahweh does not call out a second Remnant, then the waters of the Nile will turn red and the remainder of the plagues will follow. Everything then depends on Yahweh's next sign. He has performed the first. What will be the second sign?

If Satan-dominated Christianity had its way, truly the next sign would be wrath and destruction. But, let us take assurance that the second sign will in fact be the wrath-averting establishment of the second Remnant. Why? What assurance do we have that He will perform this sign for man's good, and not for evil? We have a most assuring promise.

What is the promise? Quite simply, because Yahweh has already set apart the first Remnant. The first dove has already been slain. Equally, the hand has already passed into the bosom and come out leprous (evidenced by the leprous condition of the church since then - a most important and revealing point). If the first Remnant work has taken place, then the second Remnant work will take place. If the blood of the first bird was collected in the earthen vessel over water, and it was, then the second bird will be taken out to an open field, dipped into the first bird's blood, and released alive. If the hand was placed into the bosom and came out leprous, it is an assurance that the second part of that bosom miracle will equally take place. The occurrence of the first part, though having taken place 2,000 years ago, is the guarantee that the second part will take place.

Hebrews 6:17-18 tells us - "God, desiring even more to show to the heirs of the promise the unchangeableness of His purpose, interposed with an oath, in order that by two unchangeable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we may have strong encouragement, we who have fled for refuge in laying hold of the hope set before us." Anyone who searches those verses will be hard pressed to find out what are those "two unchangeable things." They are not stated there. What are they? Clearly, the "two unchangeable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie" are the two witnesses, the two birds, the two hands into the bosom of the two-part Remnant. Will Yahweh lie and not bring forth this greatly needed wrath-averting second sign? No, for we "have strong encouragement" that He will indeed complete this second sign that averts His wrath. "This hope we have," the promise continues, "as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and steadfast and one which enters within the veil" This is the destiny and the hope of the latter days second Remnant - that we too will enter within the veil where Yahshua and the first Remnant have preceded us.

Now let us draw once again from the promise that was developed at the close of the last section. Thomas declared, "Unless I shall see in His hands the imprint of the nails, and put my finger into the place of the nails, and put my hand into His side, I will not believe." Did Yahshua demonstrate to Thomas the sign that was necessary for him to believe? Indeed He did! Did Thomas believe? Yes he did! So, will Yahweh give mankind the sign that is essential for man to believe? Yes, yes He will!

Yahshua bears on His body the marks of the church, the marks of the two signs that cause belief. The pierced feet are for Christianity, the first sign given to Moses, and the sign that has been given to mankind for 2,000 years. The pierced hands and the pierced side are for the Remnant, the second sign given to Moses, and the first part of which has already been accomplished. Yahshua thus bears on His own body the testimony of both of these signs that cause belief. And as long as those marks are upon Yahshua's body, we can be assured He will perform them!

The sign of the pierced hands and pierced side given to Thomas Didymus, the second sign given through Moses, both look to the two-part Remnant that will be Yahweh's second sign to mankind. The half-sign of the pierced hands has been fulfilled; all that remains to be accomplished is the pierced side. What Yahweh evidenced to Thomas, what are evidenced on Yahshua's body, what Yahweh performed for the Israelites, what He has foretold and revealed in other prophetic testimonies, He will perform. Now we await Yahweh's provision of the latter rain that will empower and establish the second Remnant.

Will there be wrath, or belief? According to the promises and testimonies of Yahweh, according to the marks on Yahshua's body, clearly Yahweh will complete the much needed and promise-fulfilling second sign of His Remnant work. He will bring out from the side of the body of Yahshua a bride, His second part Elijah Remnant that will ascend alive to heaven, overcome death, and be united with the first Remnant to provide the vital second sign to mankind. Yahweh will not add more death, which man does not need, but His testimony will be life! Aren't you tired of death? What we need is life!

Are you now beginning to understand the absolute vital importance of this latter rain second Remnant that is being revealed and examined in these writings? Do you understand the utter corruption, deception, and failure of Christianity, although it has been a vital first sign to cause men to believe? The fulfillment and purposes of both of these signs are most important truths to grasp as we approach the return of Yahshua, constantly contending with all the deception that Satan has spewed out of his mouth upon Christian man. Some day, you will be shocked at how deceived you have been (if it is not already beginning to dawn upon you).

Let us fittingly close this section on the sign that averts plagues with the closing words of the Old Testament. Malachi means "messenger," and Malachi was written to reveal the messenger, the Elijah that will go before Yahshua. This is the messenger of whom it was written - "Behold, I am going to send My messenger, and he will clear the way before Me" (Malachi 3:1). Who is this messenger that will clear the way for the return of Yahshua? It is not a solitary man, as it was with John; but it is a people, a host of people, who are the fulfillment of the second part of the second sign. The Elijah will be the second Remnant, who will clear the way for the return of Yahshua, and will ascend alive to heaven.

How will the second Remnant "clear the way"? One most important way is to clear out all the false teachings that have been spewed out of Satan's mouth into earthly Christianity. We will say more on this later. But another critically important purpose of the Elijah Remnant is what we have seen in this section regarding the aversion of wrath, which the second sign affords. In this regard, let us now look at the final words of the Old Testament, which closes with this promise:

"Behold, I am going to send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and terrible day of Yahweh. And he will restore the hearts of the fathers to their children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the land with a curse."

What is the power of Elijah, who precedes the return of Yahshua? And with what great promise and hope does the Old Testament close? It is the promise and the hope of the Elijah second Remnant. It is the wrath averting work of the Elijah second Remnant. The second Remnant Elijah must go before Yahshua, lest He "come and smite the land with a curse."

Could the earth be cursed? Absolutely! It is wholly worthy of it, including Christians! But Yahweh will call out His second Remnant Elijah that averts the curse. The plagues of wrath would come, if the second sign were not completed by the establishment of the vital second Remnant Elijah.

Will the earth be smitten with the curse that Christians predict and anticipate? If we relied solely upon them, absolutely! But, they are not the Elijah, and the only message they can offer is the consequence if they were the ONLY sign. BUT, they are not the only sign. The completion of the second sign will come, the Elijah, and it is this most important sign that has the promise to avert the curse on the land warned in Malachi and foretold by the plagues on the Egyptians. So Christians, you're not looking at the big picture. You are only looking at yourselves, which has been your fault for 2,000 years. There must be a work outside of you, for your work, as necessary as it has been, is corrupt and vile and incomplete. Christianity cannot give us the truth, not when its head is Satan.

There is only one hope in these days before us - that Yahweh will complete His two-part Remnant testimony. Will He complete it? He must. What He has begun, HE WILL FINISH!

BLOOD ON THE GROUND

In order to expedite the publication of this much needed writing, every effort was made to complete what you have read up to this point. For this reason, the remaining information is not ready for publication. The title you see here does not apply to these closing comments. In fact, it is the work of the second Remnant that will avert the blood on the ground; and thus, it is remarkably appropriate that this writing is cut short at this particular point.

The third and remaining sign will in time be addressed (Yahweh willing); but, the far greater and immensely more important signs, particularly relative to our times, have been examined.

At least two or three more sections need to be developed. However, what we have gained in this study up to this point affords sufficient understanding to provoke the question on the part of the reader as to where they want to be in the kingdom of God - in the body of Christ Christianity, or in the Remnant bride? These are the two parts, the two works, of the kingdom of God. They now both exist in this day, though the second is only a beginning, and one has to chose where he or she will be.

If you choose to come out of the body, that act is very simple. Let me ask you a question. How did you enter into the body? By confession of faith. By believing.

How do you leave that body and become Yahshua's bride? The same way. By confession of faith and believing. I personally am not in the body of Christ - this is my confession. I am not a Christian; and when necessary, I tell anyone that. In fact, considering the one who has dominion over Christianity, I would honestly be absolutely afraid to make any confession that I was a part of that work.

I do not want to die! Anyone who is in Christianity is under the dominion of Satan and is cursed to die. You do not realize that in order to defeat death and Satan, you can NEVER EVER NEVER do so by staying in the work where he reigns. Isn't that quite obvious? To defeat death, one MUST COME OUT of his Christianity and be legally and governmentally removed from him who has the power of death, not obligated to him or under his dominion.

As the Luke Remnant bride, we are the woman who incessantly comes to Yahweh, crying - "Give me legal protection from my opponent" (LUKE 18:3). Will Yahweh give us protection from Satan, our opponent, he who has the power of death? Read what Yahshua continued to say:

"...now shall not God bring about justice for His elect, who cry to Him day and night, and will He delay long over them? (The second Remnant bride will be a short duration work, probably three years, whereas in Christianity He has delayed for 2,000 years.) I tell you that He will bring about justice for them speedily. However, when the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on the earth?" (vss. 7-8)

The bride, who receives protection from her opponent, Satan, will overcome death and ascend alive to be with Yahshua. When Yahshua returns with His glorified two-part Remnant, the question regarding faith will lie squarely on Christians who will still be on the earth. The ONLY, THE ONLY faith in these present days that will please Yahshua is the faith of the believing Remnant. The ONLY, THE ONLY faith that will defeat Satan is the Elijah faith that effects the second-blow death to his head, the "Kill Devil Hill" testimony.

Christians think that a "rapture" is just some great exit before or after some great tribulation. They totally lack any true concept of what an Elijah ascension alive even means, because they cannot effect it. The ascension of the second Remnant affords man for the first time ever victory over death! This is THE GREAT POINT regarding ascending alive; not some cheep exit. The Remnant's ascension alive effects the second-blow death to Satan's head.

I hope you are beginning to realize how ABSOLUTELY VITAL the establishment of the second Remnant is. Satan, and the power of death he possesses, CAN NEVER be overcome until Yahweh has a people who will come out of Satan-ruled Christianity, and place themselves under the government of the Remnant bride tree of life.

If you choose to do this, you can never again call yourself a body-of-Christ Christian. (Who would want to, knowing what we know?) Remember, the first Remnant disciples were never called Christians. Christian and Christianity are terms that relate specifically to the body of Christ. Your focus and identity is to be His Remnant bride, and as such to seek Him and find pleasure in Him in this distinctly separate effectual work.

Yahweh is always calling people out. The word "church" means "called out." Because of the truth and the evidence you have before you now, you must decide whether you will be His called out one, His bride, or remain in His body. Will you be the tithed out of the tithe, or simply the tithe?

We will now end this writing; but most importantly, right now is the GREAT need for a people who will come out of Christianity and make themselves ready for the soon return of Yahshua.

And I heard, as it were, the voice of a great multitude and as the sound of many waters and as the sound of mighty peals of thunder, saying, "Hallelu-Yah! For the Lord our God, the Almighty, reigns. Let us rejoice and be glad and give the glory to Him, for the marriage of the Lamb has come and His bride has MADE HERSELF READY" (Revelation 19:6-7).

The first step of making one's self ready is to come out from the body to be His bride. For those who will come out and be His bride, what do you do next? The answer is clear and vitally important! It is suggested that you read such writings as The Love Of Money and Upon What Foundation Will You Build? in order to find the answer to this question. But do not delay, for the time of the second Remnant will come to a close quickly! And once the door closes, no one will open it - Revelation 3:7.

Like the priests who put their feet in the Jordan before the miracle crossing into the promised land, so I invite you to join me in believing. The bride "made herself ready." Thus, there is action required on the part of the bride.

To take a stand of coming out of Satan-dominated Christianity is a GREAT attack on Satan, and a GREAT intercessional stand for Yahweh to pour out upon us His MUCH NEEDED Spirit. Yahweh must have vessels to fill, and He fills those vessels that are available - those who in faith come out to receive the waters He offers. Coming out is the first step of faith.
